

Mundia Trinhah Martin is a passionate advocate for gender equity, child protection, and educational support. As a member of the Chance4all Board of Advisors, she brings her extensive experience in philanthropy and community service to help drive the organization's mission. Her dedication to empowering children and promoting social change has made a significant impact on the lives of many.